Leadership Competencies

Each of the questions in the previous section is linked to one of the four leadership quadrants.

Self-Management refers to personal awareness, self-regulation, stress management, resilience, transparency and authenticity. It describes the process of managing one's emotions maturely to achieve the best outcomes. It may require positive self-talk and recovery periods to fuel peak performance in turbulent times and avoiding burn out. Successful self-management requires management of yourself and taking care of your brand and reputation.

Relationship Management refers to the ability to achieve better results through better relationships. It is about getting along with others in order to get ahead. It can involve the ability to build trusting, loyal relationships with stakeholders to support retention and performance. Successful relationship management requires recognition that your own level of performance relies on the performance of your team, which in turn relies on their engagement.

Working in the Business refers to having the experience, capability and efficiency to consistently deliver great results. It requires having the energy, passion and competitive drive to stay in the performance zone. Success in this area can involve smarter prioritization of work, more delegation, better time management and more effective goal setting. It is about achieving service and operational excellence in a timely, efficient manner.

Working on the Business refers to adding extra value through innovation and strategic planning, and building motivated, accountable teams. Success in this area can involve long-term planning to achieve competitive advantage and delivering results through high-performing cultures. Leading change requires spending more time on the business, having a planning cycle, conducting regular planning reviews, and challenging poor performers.

Competency Combinations

Your combined scores for Self-Management and Relationship Management form a Behavioral Competencies score. Similarly, the combined scores for Working in the Business and Working on the Business form the Business Competencies score.

Behavioral Competencies 6.2

The Behavioral Competencies combination describes the use of emotional intelligence (EQ) to professionally manage oneself and relate appropriately to others to get the best outcomes from teams and stakeholders. High scorers typically demonstrate emotional resilience and strong interpersonal skills to improve results through better relationships. It requires stable, sustainable relationships to stay in the performance zone and avoid derailment.

The Business Competencies combination describes the use of cognitive capability (IQ) to get the right balance between working in (operational) and on (strategic) the business to optimize day-to-day and longer-term results. High scorers typically demonstrate both the technical ability to deliver service and operational excellence as well as strategic insight to drive the bigger picture. It requires a strategic focus to deliver great results through high-performing cultures.

Competency Combinations

Your combined scores for Self-Management and Working in the Business form a Management Competencies score. Similarly, the combined scores for Relationship Management and Working on the Business form a Leadership Competencies Score.

Management Competencies

6.3

The Management Competencies combination describes the world of the day-to-day manager where integrity and resilience are required to maximise capability, efficiency and positivity to deliver sound results. High scorers typically achieve service and operational excellence in a timely and efficient manner and are held accountable for performance by measurement.

Leadership Competencies

The Leadership Competencies combination describes the bigger-picture world of the leader who makes time to create stakeholder engagement around strategic goals. High scorers typically build trusting, loyal relationships and motivate others to achieve the strategic agenda. It is about partnerships delivering innovation and peak performance.

Peer: excellence in all work domains; deeply loyal and supportive advocate; effective communicator with high EQ.

Peer: Leading by example.

Report:

Peer: Her willingness to lead and at the same time her willingness to learn.

Peer: A great leader of a team and great implementer of strategy; she is effective in difficult or adverse circumstances and supportive of her team.

Peer: Generous, kind and passionate.

After working with Maria for the last 5 months I have found her to be: an inspiration; a fantastic leader who get the best from everyone; transparent - you always know exactly where you stand; open to ideas and trusts judgement, although will challenge your ideas; she has high expectations and work ethic; a pleasure to work with and for.

Maria is an exceptional, effective and dynamic leader who inspires people to do their best and Report: challenges the status quo to drive improvement, collaboration and communication. Her energy and drive in all she does is infectious and she is admired, not only within the organisation, but in the aged care industry as a whole.

Report: Strategic vision for the company; enthusiasm and passion for aged care, wants to make a difference.

She is a dynamic manager who is an excellent leader. She is able to challenge the team and bring out

Report: the best in all of us; she is a forward thinker and utilises her networks for the advancement of the organization; if she lacks knowledge in any aspect of the business she will ensure she uses her networks and counterparts to obtain advice. She is a convincing speaker.

criticism; listen to other people's ideas.

Gain broader commercial business knowledge; gain knowledge of longer term business planning;

improve financial analytical skills to support quantitative business cases for decision making equally as well as qualitative factors.

Peer: I don't have any suggestions to make on this.

Peer: Be communicative with peers; listen to their views without already having made predetermined opinions.

Peer:

Peer: Be aware of quieter people and look at including them in a discussion and encourage their ideas.

Report: Acknowledging stressors within her team and individuals' challenges to meet required outcomes.

Report: Could listen more.

Report: Be more patient with others in terms of listening.

Report: Greater emphasis on performance feedback as normal operating process.

The only opportunity to improve is to allocate a bit of time with managers to find out what is really Report: happening at sites - undercover CEO. She is very busy and needs to consider the workloads of the managers. She is fantastic.

Report: Be clearer when communicating messages or ideas across.

Sometimes managers can overuse their strengths. For example, a confident person can become arrogant, a passionate person can become temperamental, or a diligent person can micromanage others. Are there any strengths being overused by this person?

Mgr: Maria is passionate and sometimes this can be misread as being dominating, if the person talking to her is not familiar with her.

Peer: May be single minded at times.

Peer: Can sometimes be over assertive and appear to be controlling. Single mindedness and determination can sometimes come across as not being open-minded.

Peer: None to my knowledge.

Peer: Confidence sometimes stops engagement with others.

Report: Not that I am aware.

Report: Maria has high standards and expectations of not only herself but others and she can be very difficult to keep up with.

Report: No.

Report: She does not overuse her strengths.

Report: Exuberant personality can be intimidating at times.

Report: Communicating so effectively and so quickly that others can't keep up is frustrating for Maria.

Report: Has the propensity to become arrogant but has increased self-awareness of this behaviour.
